FLINT SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS
2009-2010
Concerto Competition Application

When: Monday, October 19, 2009 7:00 PM
MacArthur Recital Hall
Open to the public

Who: Any ninth, tenth, eleventh or twelfth grade FSPA private lesson student who will not have graduated from high school by March 15, 2010 may audition. The winner must be available to rehearse every Tuesday, 6:15-9:00 PM for Youth Symphony or every Wednesday 6:00-8:45 PM for Wind Ensemble rehearsal the six weeks prior to the concert date. Specific rehearsal times will be arranged between the conductor and soloist. Applicants may audition only on the instrument they study privately at the Flint School of Performing Arts.

Repertoire: Music must be selected from the Concerto Competition Repertoire List (see your private lessons instructor). Piano accompaniment is required for both preliminaries and finals. All sections must be memorized, and less than 15 minutes in length. If the concerto is written with cadenza, the cadenza must be performed at the competition.

Prize: The competition winner will perform as soloist with the Flint Youth Symphony or Flint Youth Wind Ensemble as part of one of their scheduled programs in 2009 or 2010. Concerts are generally held in the MacArthur Recital Hall, area high school auditoriums or at The Whiting.
